

NO WOMAN SHOULD LOSE HER RIGHTS BECAUSE SHE LOST HER HUSBAND

Ms Dianah Kamande, a widow from Nairobi County shakes hands with..... more

PUSHING FOR WOMEN LEADERSHIP BEYOND AFFIRMATIVE ACTION IN KENYA

Women's political empowerment and equal accessmore

FIGHTING SEXUAL HARASSMENT IN ACADEMIA

United States International University-Africa (USIU-Africa) as one of the universities in Kenya.....more

JULY 2017 EVENTS

5th July: Launch of the 1st status of equality and inclusion report by National Gender & Equality Commission@ Nairobi

8th July : 1000 women peace march @Nairobi

4-7 & 18-21 July: High level dialogue with Senior County Procurement Officers @ Different Counties

10-14: Gender mainstreaming in election preparedness @ Different Counties

MUST READ:

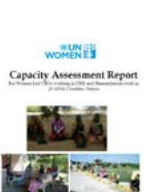

UN Women Annual Report 2016-2017

Implementation of the agenda 2030 for Sustainable Development in Kenya (2017)

Gender Responsiveness of the Political Party Primaries in Kenya

Capacity Assessment Report For Women Led CBOs working in DRR and Humanitarian work in 23 ASAL Counties, Kenya

FROM OUR PARTNERS:

ALL SYSTEMS GO AS ALMOST 2,000 WOMEN GET TO THE BALLOT PAPER

The list of those who will be in the ballot boxmore

UN Women is supported by:

"I am very optimistic that for the first time in the history of our country, we will have elected women governors and women senators. Going forward, we will have a stronger and sustained voice of the women in public space"

Cabinet Secretary Ministry of Public Service Youth and Gender Affairs Hon. Cecily Kariuki