

SEPTEMBER 2016 EVENTS

5-9th: Workshop to Develop a training manual for HeForShe Champions @Naivasha

7th: Regional Launch of the 1325 Global Study @Nairobi

7-9th: Capacity Building Training on Gender Responsive Budgeting for county executives @Eldoret

12 - 17th: Gender Mainstreaming for humanitarian partners in Kakuma Refugee camp @Lokichoggio

13th: UNDAF National Steering Committee @State House Nairobi

13th: United Nations General Assembly @New York

14th: Launch of the Sustainable development Goals @Kasarani Nairobi

SNAPSHOTS FROM TICAD VI: GENDER EQUALITY AND WOMEN'S EMPOWERMENT CRITICAL IN ACHIEVING THE SDGS
Gender Equality and the Empowerment of Women are critical in achieving the Agenda 2030 for Sustainable Development... more

TURKANA COUNTY GOVERNMENT OFFICERS TRAINED ON GENDER MAINSTREAMING
The Capacity Building Workshop for Turkana County Government Officers on Gender Mainstreaming was held on 10th to ... more

STRENGTHENING THE CAPACITY OF THE UN GENDER WORKING GROUP IN MAINSTREAMING GENDER IN PROGRAMMATIC WORK
The UN Gender Working Group (GWG) held a training workshop aimed at... more

MUST READ:

UN Women Kenya Annual Report 2015:
Here in Kenya and around the world, 2015 was a significant year of development...

Africa Human Development Report 2016: Gender inequality is costing sub-Saharan Africa on average $US95 billion

Women Matter report by McKinsey & Company is widely referenced as evidence of the link between a company's share of women in leadership...

FROM OUR PARTNERS:

Women leaders in Africa demand space for transformative leadership

African Women have defied rhetoric and achieved that which was deemed impossible. Women in leadership positions across political and socio-economic platforms have shattered glass ceilings and proved that they possess the undeniable ability ... more

Women must empower themselves, and must empower each other by walking the talk and being confident in what they do. For us to realize transformative leadership and women's empowerment, it can no longer be business as usual"

Ambassador Dr. Amina Mohamed, CS Ministry of Foreign Affairs Kenya