

UN Women Kenya NEWS

NOVEMBER 2016 EVENTS

2: UNDAF National Steering Committee @ Statehouse

8-12 and 15-19: High level seminar for county procurement in Kisumu and Mombasa

14-18: Peace training @ Mandera

7-11: Donors field monitoring visit @ Kwale

21-23 and 24-26: Office of the Registrar of Political Parties training @ Several counties

18: Kenyatta University HeForShe club launch

21: GoK-UN Joint Programme on GBV launch @ Nairobi

25: 16 days of Activism against GBV launch @ Kajiando County

28-29: High level meeting of Global Partnership for Effective Development Cooperation @ KICC

Equality means business: Putting principles into practice
Private sector stepped it up for gender equality... more

Leaving no one behind in reducing disaster mortality in Kenya
Floods and earthquake contribute to the highest numbers of disaster mortality in the world, with chances of women ... more

Empowering Women through Gender-Sensitive Public Procurement
In early 2014, Emmy was introduced to the JOYWO ... more

MUST READ:

Leadership with a Difference
A profile of women leaders in Kenya Empowerment Final Report 2009-2015

Timeline: Women's footprint in history

Throughout history, women have made extraordinary contributions

Driving the Gender-Responsive Implementation of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development

FROM OUR PARTNERS:

The launch of the gender round table in Kajiado county
National Women's Steering Committee (NWSC) and the Council of Governors endeavors to jointly more

PROFILE

The two tenders I won changed my life, I am now confident to walk into a government office and I am also able to pay fees for my daughter who is studying a business degree at a University in Nairobi".

*Emmy Choge,
Entrepreneur and Curio shop owner
Nairobi*